

FLEXFAB

Armed with a cutting-edge combination of twisted rhythms, bewitched electronics, and destructive bass music, beat wizard FlexFab has catapulted himself into the spotlight as the new deft player to watch. FlexFab's production fuse subtle elements with intense sound, creating a brand of bass music that is as engaging as it is innovative. FlexFab also set himself apart through his unique visual identity, and a devastating and furious live performance.

The Swiss producer won various awards, remixed Ibeyi, cumulates over 5 million streams with his single "Zoo", toured intensively in over 15 countries, created music for orchestras,... and has been best described by the medias as "the future of bass music".

FLEXFAB
EX-VOTO

NEW ALBUM “Ex-Voto”

“Ex-Voto” is the brainchild of Swiss electronic producer FlexFab, the follow up to the mini-albums “Manoir” and “LOAS” which catapulted FlexFab in the spotlight and established him as a growing force in the bass music scene.

“Ex-Voto” is a collection of 9 new tracks, which features the bewitched-hybrid bass sound signature FlexFab has been known for, and unexpected collaborations with up and coming artists such as South African rappers Batuk, Malaysian singer The Venopian Solitude, Egyptian rapper Rozzma (from Acid Arab’s label), US rapper Mouthe, or Swiss producer Simpig, to name a few.
